Please tell us about your dog; Please feel free to ad lib. You don't need to answer every single question. But please give us enough information to give us a good description of your dog.

1. How big is your dog? Weight? Approximate height from floor to top of shoulder blades? How old is your dog? Breed? Spayed/Neutered? Any Health Problems?

2. Tell us about your dog's obedience training. Has your dog been to any group classes? When? What kind (i.e, puppy-kindergarten, basic training...)? Where? Did your dog finish the class? Can your dog focus on you when it is around other dogs/people/outside?

Your Name _____ Dog's Name _____

3. Tell us about your dog's sports experience. Has your dog been to any sports classes? When? Where? What kind? If your dog has agility experience, tell us about the heights of the equipment. Was your dog running a full height A-Frame, Teeter, Dog Walk?... If not full height, then what heights? Weave poles straight up or open?

4. Tell us about your dog's personality and socialization history. Does your dog shy away from people/other dogs? Does your dog bark/lunge at other dogs when on leash? Does your dog seem to worry about strange noises? Do you have a lot of company? Or do you take your dog off of your property to socialize with other dogs and people? Does your dog play nicely off leash with other dogs? Does your dog bite your hand when you grab it by the collar?

5. Tell us about your training goals? Why are you taking this class? Do you want to train your dog to competition level? Do you plan to practice outside of class?

6. Tell us your veterinarian's name, address, and phone number.

Thank you for taking the time to fill out this form so that you and your dog can have an enjoyable class experience. We will notify you via e-mail or telephone to let you know which class you got into and what you need to bring to class. We highly recommend that you inform your veterinarian that you're coming to class and make sure that your dog is up to date on vaccine requirements. We look forward to meeting you.
